

FOG Stakeholder workgroup schedule

Workshop 1	Workshop 2	Workshop 3	Workshop 4
Monday 20 th February 2017 (The Strand, London)	Monday 6 th March 2017 (The Strand, London)	Friday 10 th March 2017 (The Strand, London)	Friday 24 th March 2017 (NG House, Warwick)
Gas/Electricity Interaction	Heat	Supply	Industrial Demand

Workgroup Introduction

- Briefing on the aims and purpose of the workgroup sessions
- Overview of plans for the Transmission FoG project over the next 12 months.

Morning session

- What role will gas play in the future generation landscape?
- Is the parallel operation of the two energy market rules presenting any barriers now and in the future?
- Are the current markets and energy landscape constraining investment?

Morning session

- Tell us how you see changes in the way consumers get heat for their homes and businesses in the future.
- In what way is this likely to impact gas demand?
- What role could gas play in the future delivery of energy for heat?

Morning session

- What role do you see gas playing in the future?
- Where will gas come from ? and what type of gas will there be ?
- Does the current gas regime deliver the services and products you need to run your business in the future?

Morning session

- Are you considering any diversification of energy source?
- What impact will current and future emissions legislation have on your business?
- What is most important aspect of gas supply which needs preserving (gas quality, reliability, affordability etc.) ?

Lunch

Afternoon session

- How can electricity and gas work together in a multi energy future?
- What changes are needed to provide reliable affordable and sustainable energy to consumers in the future?
- What areas of the market rules and licences need to have greater alignments between Gas and Electricity?

Afternoon session

- How will the gas regime, and market arrangements, need to change to deliver the services and products consumers want?
- What changes will be required to frameworks, market rules, gas regime, infrastructure and assets to support your future business needs?

Afternoon session

- How will the gas regime, and market arrangements, need to change to deliver the services and products customers want?
- What role should NG play in facilitating new sources of supply?
- What changes will be required to frameworks, market rules, gas regime, infrastructure and assets to support your future business needs?

Afternoon session

- How are changes in the way the industry uses gas likely to impact the way customers use the NTS?
- What changes will be required to frameworks, market rules, gas regime, infrastructure and assets to support your future business needs?